

Tuition Fee & Scholarship / Financial Assistance from HKU

- Tuition fee

Students will pay HKU tuition fees while on exchange.

- Scholarship/ financial assistance from HKU

To be eligible for a scholarship, participants must obtain a CGPA of 3.0 or above for the most recent semester before departure for their exchange studies. All eligible applicants are required to provide information about their financial need. International Affairs Office (IAO) will allocate applicants with an appropriate scholarship according to their financial need and academic standing after the confirmation of acceptance by the host institutions.

All eligible participants will be automatically considered for the Scholarship for Semester Exchange. The scholarship amount for 2024-25 is listed below for your reference:

Destination	HKUWW Scholarship Amount
	Per semester	Per year
Canada, Europe, Japan, Israel, South Africa, USA	HK$12,000	HK$24,000
Australia, New Zealand	HK$11,000	HK$22,000
South Korea	HK$7,000	HK$14,000
Macau, Malaysia, Singapore, Taiwan, Thailand	HK$5,500	HK$11,000
China	HKU China 10,000 Exchange Programme (to be arranged by the host university)

This scholarship is just a notional amount of sponsorship for your exchange studies. Students should not consider it as a major financial source. Please refer to <https://intlaffairs.hku.hk/scholarships> for more details.

The Centre of Development and Resources for Students (CEDARS) also provides different forms of financial assistance for students in need. Student loan fund is also available from The Bank of East Asia, Limited (BEA) on campus. You may visit the BEA branch on campus for more details.
